Complaint

(1) The three committees named supra violated FEC regulations by participating in a joint fundraising event without observing established joint fundraising rules which state

All participants in a joint fundraising effort, including unregistered organizations, must

- Create or select a political committee to act as the fundraising representative,
- Agree to a formula for allocating proceeds and expenses,
- Sign a written agreement naming the fundraising representative and stating the allocation formula,
- Establish a separate account for joint fundraising receipts and disbursements,
- Notify the public of the allocation formula and certain other information (detailed below) when soliciting contributions

The respondents named supra participated in a joint fundraising event and requested that the patrons of the event write three separate individualized checks to each of the three committees
